Corrections Talks Diversity – Career Information Session

We're currently hiring at Toronto South Detention Centre and seeking candidates from diverse backgrounds who are talented, innovative and enjoy working within an inclusive environment. Jobs are available for both English and bilingual positions.

Career opportunities in correctional services can offer a rewarding career in the justice sector and is an opportunity to work with a team that values diversity and is committed to your development. We take pride in making a difference in the lives of those under our custody and supervision, as well as protecting the safety of our communities.

Take the opportunity to network and talk to recruiters directly to gain insight into the recruitment process. Ask your career questions, receive advice and get the tools and resources you'll need to help you in your job search.

Join us at our next virtual information session on:

Wednesday, December 16, 2020
3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Please register on Eventbrite as space is limited.
