

The Centre of Learning and Development's FREE Immigrant Women Integration Program 2021-2022 is open for applications until Aug. 27.

Do you work with newcomer/immigrant women? If yes, please ask them to consider the program described below, the info session on Aug. 18th and online application.

Are you a newcomer/immigrant woman or an agency working with newcomers/immigrants in Toronto? Are you interested in being a neighbourhood champion and helping your community grow?

We have the perfect program for you! Immigrant Women Integration Program (IWIP) is an intense FREE training program that develops community leaders through capacity building to strengthen Toronto communities.

Participants will gain:

- Knowledge of community needs and resources
- Increased sense of belonging
- Enhanced knowledge of Human Service Sector
- Community-based research and presentation skills
- Workplace Experience - 100 hours
- Significantly enhanced employability

Eligibility:

- Interest in supporting community change
- A resident of Toronto or GTA
- A minimum of Canadian Language Benchmark (6 in all areas)
- Ability to commit 8 Hours Per Week in Online Live Sessions (20 hours per week in total, including hours of self-study, from September 2021 - June 2022)
- Intermediate computer skills

APPLICATION DEADLINE: AUGUST 27TH, 2021

To apply to IWIP please fill out the form here: <https://survey.zohopublic.com/zs/I5CCbQ>

Join our info session about this program on August 18th, 2021. Please see the flyer attached.